

Giuseppe Rinaldi, Monforte d'Alba 2016

We are delighted to offer what must be one of the most sought after and collectable estates in Piedmont, Giuseppe Rinaldi.

These are wines, together with those of Bartolo Mascarello and Cappellano, which are considered the most revered examples of the Langhe's old school.

And this is just as it should be, for Rinaldi's methods are among the most traditional among Barolo's truly great producers and the wines are monuments to this approach—powerfully structured, hauntingly perfumed, very slow to mature and completely without concession to current fashion.

These wines are must haves for any serious collector of Barolo and deserve a special place in your cellar.

"Sisters Marta and Carlotta Rinaldi turned out two dazzling 2016 Barolos. The wines are sure to make Rinaldi fans smile, as they represent the essence of classical austerity, in the best sense of the term. Harvest took place between October 17 and 25, very late by present day standards. I have to say, I found the 2016 Rinaldis thrilling."

"I remember tasting it during bottling and thinking that Beppe Rinaldi would be so very proud of his daughters for making this wine, a Barolo that so vividly captures the heart and soul of what these wines are all about."

2016 Barolo Tre Tine, Giuseppe Rinaldi @ £1,650 c/s In Bond (6 bts per case, OCC)

The 2016 Barolo Tre Tine represents a sense of classicism in its mid-weight structure and austere energy. Tightly wound and brilliant, the 2016 is naturally going to need at least a few years in bottle to come together, but it is both delicious and immensely promising now. Sweet tobacco, cedar, mint and dried flowers come together with ethereal tannins in this super-classic wine. The blend of sites here - Ravera, Cannubi (San Lorenzo) and Le Coste - works so well.

2016 Barolo Brunate, Giuseppe Rinaldi @ £1,850 c/s In Bond (6 bts per case, OCC)

The 2016 Barolo Brunate is a tightly wound wine with striking inner perfume, sweetness and energy. Deep, dense and powerful, the 2016 exudes a sense of classical austerity that will thrill Rinaldi lovers. I remember tasting it during bottling and thinking that Beppe Rinaldi would be so very proud of his daughters for making this wine, a Barolo that so vividly captures the heart and soul of what these wines are all about. The 2016 is going to need a number of years to come into its own, but it holds immense promise.
